

Laligam N Sekhar, MD

Dr. Sekhar is a Professor and Vice Chair of the UW Department of Neurological Surgery. He practices primarily at Harborview Medical Center in Seattle. He is internationally renowned for many innovations in the fields of Skull Base Surgery, and Cerebrovascular Surgery. He has operated on more than 1000 brain aneurysms, and 2500 skull Base Tumors during his practice of more than 30 years. He specializes in the practice of Cerebrovascular Disorders such as Brain Aneurysms, Arteriovenous malformations, and Brain Bypasses; Skull Base Tumors such as Meningiomas, Acoustic Neuromas, and Chordomas; and Cranial Nerve – vascular compression disorders such as Trigeminal Neuralgia, Hemi facial Spasm, and Disabling Vertigo or Tinnitus. Outside of his work, his interests include his family, sports, a green planet, and spirituality. He is married, and has three children.